How long we preserve your personal data

Reach Out 2 preserves your personal data no longer than absolutely necessary. If the data is purely administrative (p.a. as needed for the Dutch Tax Authorities) the legal retention period of 7 years applies. Other data will be deleted if these are no longer functional.

Sharing personal data with third parties

Reach Out 2 only shares personal data if necessary for applying our agreement or if we are legally obliged.

Cookies

Reach Out 2 only uses technical and functional cookies. A cookie is a small text file that will be saved on your computer, tablet or smartphone at your first visit. The used cookies are necessary for the correct functioning of the website and for your convenience. (P.a. your preferences). They are also useful for optimizing the website.

You can unsubscribe for these cookies and preventing them to be saved by changing the setting of your internetbrowser. It is also possible to delete all saved data by using the internetbrowsersettings. Read more in our cookiestatement.

Viewing, adapting or deleting your data.

You have the right to view, adapt or to delete your personal data. You also have the right to withdraw your permission of processing your personal data or object to the processing of your personal data by Reach Out 2 and you have the right to data portability. This means you can propose a request to send your data to you or another organization selected by you.

All the above mentioned rights and requests can be effected by sending an e-mail to info@reachout2.nl.

To be sure that these requests are made by you, please attach a copy of your identitycard. On this copy we advise you to make your passportnumber, the photo, the MRZ (machine readable zone) and other identity numbers unreadable. This is for protecting your privacy. You will receive a reply a.s.a.p., or at least within four weeks

Reach Out 2 likes to point out that it is possible to make a complaint to the National supervisor, de Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens. You can use this link:
